Lincoln students combine knowledge, imagination, and talent to express creativity in the world of Lincoln.

Determination Is The Key To Achievement

Student Life

Student life at Lincoln is an essential aspect of the total high school atmosphere. It involves the commitment of students to each other, to the school, and to the community as a supplement to their classroom education. With its various career clubs, service organizations, and performing groups, Lincoln offers each student the opportunity to become involved and to grow with the school.

Homecoming 1970

Homecoming 1970 was a time of excitement and fun. Throughout the frenzied week of activities such as the Powder Puff Football game, the car paint, the car bash, the caravan, the coronation assembly, the football game, and the Homecoming dance, Lincoln High students shared the excitement of the week's activities and the fun of being together.

Virtue Triumphs in Drama Production

"Pure as the Driven Snow," presented by the Lincoln Drama Department, is a melodrama wherein virtue triumphs over villainy. The story centers around Purity Dean, the persecuted heroine, who, after many escapades, finally rids herself of her shadow, Mortimer Frothingham, forever. The production of "Pure as the Driven Snow" was under the direction of Miss Carol Harms.

"Unhand her, you cad!", exclaimed the manly bosomed hero Leander Longfellow.

Dastardly fiendish Mortimer Frothingham and his accomplice Jedd Lunn discuss their plot to trap Purity Dean.

Student Council Means Involvement

Lincoln's Student Council provides an opportunity for students to express their ideas and to work for the improvement of the school. These students displayed an eagerness to solve the school's problems. Some of the projects of the Student Council were ribbon, mum, and Friendship Bond sales, a canned goods drive and several mixers.

Dressed in their new uniforms, Pep Clubbers made their presence known at the year's athletic events. These girls sat together and joined the Cheerleaders in conducting powerful spirited cheers and songs. The girls added spirit and excitement to the school athletic contests, making sure that Lincoln teams know they weren't alone no matter where they went.

Girls! Girls! Girls!

One of the most worth-while projects of Girls' Club was spending many hours making friends at the New Haven Rest Home.

Encompassing all the girls at Lincoln, the Girls' Club worked hard at promoting activities beneficial to the school and the community. These activities included the traditional Big Sister-Little Sister Picnic, monthly birthday parties at New Haven Rest Home, the annual style show, and the Homecoming balloon release. Climaxing this year's events was the annual Sweetheart Dance.

Soon it will be up, up, and away with the traditional homecoming balloons purchased by Girls' Club.

During Homecoming week school spirit takes on a new meaning. Sophomores become enthusiastic, juniors and seniors plan and use all of their ingenuity and energy to make Homecoming a reality. This year the results were a Senior Sign that revolved and an emotional coronation from which Ann Clarity and Tony Russo emerged as royalty.

While gathered around the 1970 Senior Sign, Seniors show enthusiasm for Homecoming as they cheer on a victory.

Cheerleaders Spark Pep

Kindling spirit within a school of 2,000 students isn't an easy job, but this year's cheerleading squad managed to capture and transmit the excitement and sentiment to all school athletic events. New stunts executed by the cheerleaders and yell leaders were real crowd pleasers during basketball season. The cheerleaders helped to make the athletic year one of which we can all be proud.

Hook of "L": Mary Badger, Sharon Myers, Kathy McKelvey, and Co-Captains Shan Comiskey and Janet Augspurger.

Drill Team Performs With Spirit

Adding color and enthusiasm to the year's football and basketball halftime shows was the Lincoln High Drill Team. These girls, under the leadership of Co-Captains Janet Augspurger and Shan Comiskey, were chosen in the spring on the basis of marching ability, personal appearance, grades, attendance, and Pep Club standing. Besides marching during halftime performances and parades, Drill Teamers sold homecoming buttons, candy, and jewelry in order to finance their trip with the band to the Dakota Days Band Festival. Mrs. Cheryle Hendrick contributed much time to help the girls' performance and also forfeited much patience and sleep during extra-curricular activities.

Do I Hear a Melody?

Highlighting a musical year, the vocal music department participated in various programs involving school assemblies, public performances, and the state music contest. Under the direction of Mr. John Whaley, the Modern Madrigals, Concert Choir, Boys' Glee Club and Prep Choir had a busy year. Madrigals represented Lincoln at Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, and Rotary Club meetings. This group also visited nursing homes and the Echo Valley Country Club. A Christmas presentation and the spring show, "All Kinds of Everything" were the highlights of the year.

Music Men In Action

Continuing to provide instrumental accompaniment to the varied Lincoln activities, Band members performed at pep assemblies and athletic events. Also furthering Lincoln's public image, the band presented numerous concerts, one of which featured Joe Murrello, renowned jazz drummer. Under the direction of Mr. Bill Henderson, band director, and Kirk Phillips, drum major, the band highlighted their 70-71 year with a trip to Rapid City, South Dakota for the Dakota Day's Parade.

Railsplitter Newspaper

Henry E. Sanders, Advisor

Nancy Griffith
Editor

Production of the Railsplitter gives students experience in writing, editing, and publishing a newspaper. Students learn the exacting routine of meeting deadlines, and work as a team to combine the headlines, stories, and pictures that make up the Railsplitter.

The Railsplitter records for Lincoln High School the achievements of students and teachers in classroom and extra-curricular activities. The Railsplitter reflects the world of students by reviewing the happenings in school and community.

This year the Railsplitter won its eleventh consecutive All-American award from the National Scholastic Press Association 84th Critical Service and its fourth Medalist from the Columbia Press Association.

Railsplitter Yearbook

Henry E. Sanders, Advisor

By combining pictures and words, the Railsplitter yearbook attempts to recreate and record the 1970-71 school year. The staff, headed by Sue Griffin, spent many hours working and reworking the layouts and copy for the book.

Each segment of the book's production was headed by a member of the editorial staff. Introduction was handled by Cathy Evans. The Student Life section was edited and planned by Shan Comiskey. Dan Blunck and Mark Hendricks were contributing editors for the Sports section. The immense job of cutting and pasting the senior glossies was handled by Cindy Moon and the Undergraduate section under the direction of Mindy Siddens. Kim Markwardt handled the accounting for the ads and Joan Nizzi guided the circulation of the books.

Photography was contributed by Bob Griffith, Kirk Phillips, and Charlie Richards.

Academics Undergo Many Changes

It has been said that, "Variety is the spice of life." At Lincoln, this year, academics have undergone renovations, additions, expansions, and experimentation, much to the delight of students and faculty.

The Opportunities Unlimited program expanded by offering new courses in math, data processing and other areas.

A new dimension was added to girls swimming this year when Mrs. Cheryle Hendrick initiated scuba diving. The course was only an introduction to the sport, but it offered an enjoyable as well as educational experience for the girls.

Other new courses are math and music appreciation, data processing, psychology, consumer business and cooperative education.

There have also been numerous changes in the language arts, social science, natural science, and math departments.

Journalism class members discuss editing problems with Miss Helen Randall, cadet teacher from Iowa State University, second from right.

In Memoriam

RHONDA BAKER
1954 - 1971

Rhonda's bright and energetic personality was loved by all who knew her. Rhonda enjoyed sports, and was an active member of Pep Club and tennis team; she was a newly elected member of the Dorian Art Club.

The class of 1973 will miss her loyalty and enthusiasm as they continue their years at Lincoln.

MARY VITALE
1952 - 1970

Mary was one of Lincoln's most challenging students, to teachers and friends alike.

She enjoyed participating in Pep Club, Future Teacher's Club, and Leaders Club.

Mary will always be remembered by those whose lives she touched.

Here's why more and more Des Moines graduates choose Grand View each year . . .

Statistics show that each year more and more Des Moines graduates are choosing Grand View College . . .

And here are some of the reasons . . .

- A 75-year heritage of academic excellence
- Concerned faculty interested in each student
- Two-year and Three-year programs
- Reasonable tuition
- Modern classrooms
- Fully-accredited liberal arts and pre-professional curriculum

Before choosing your college, consider Grand View.

The training of a mind is an exciting, lifetime adventure. The mind may be taught, or it may be self-trained. But, no matter the method used, an education is never finished.
If serving your fellow man through work in the business world seems challenging to you, we hope you will come see us when your school days are over.

Books instruct us without anger, threats and harsh discipline. They do not sneer at our ignorance or grumble at our mistakes. They ask only that we spend more time in the company of greatness so that we may absorb some of its attributes.

IS THE WORLD GROWING FAST ENOUGH?

It depends. Either population is growing too fast or food production is not growing fast enough. World population may double in 33 years. Does this mean mass starvation? Not if we develop today's agriculture and harness coming breakthroughs in feeds, fertilizers, farming methods, and machinery. Can the world grow food fast enough? John Deere equipment and dealers will help farmers make the answer to this question "yes."

ANTHONY COMITO, Proprietor

If you've reached a point in life where a career decision must be made, think it over carefully. It could be the most important decision you make in your life. Before you make that decision, consider Equitable of Iowa.

In the past 100 years Equitable of Iowa has grown and expanded to meet the times. We're still growing, faster than ever, and would like you to come and grow with us. We offer all of the modern advantages of working for a large company, group life and health insurance, job security and generous vacations. Yet when you work for us you're more than just an employee, you're part of the Equitable family.

The life insurance industry is an American giant and one of the most vital industries in the nation's economy. Its work is essential to millions of Americans and their families. Equitable of Iowa has over $2½ billion of life insurance in force making it one of the major life companies.

The work of Equitable of Iowa involves many kinds of jobs requiring many kinds of qualifications. Advancement is limited only by your ability and initiative. If Equitable of Iowa sounds interesting to you stop into our personnel office, 1105 Equitable Building. Ask for Pat Bush. She'll be glad to discuss career possibilities with you. After she does you may well decide to grow with us . . . at Equitable of Iowa.

As part of Younkers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is offered each year for the Des Moines area schools . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people, selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their interest and ability in retailing and fashion. They give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Younkers salutes the representatives from Lincoln High School for a job very well done.
